

John S. Craig

Partner

John Craig has litigated a broad range of matters, both in court and before administrative agencies. He has also been active in internal corporate investigations and in advising clients on mitigating litigation risk. Mr. Craig strives to provide clients with sound, practical and cost effective solutions to their legal problems.

Mr. Craig has represented corporate, institutional and individual clients both as plaintiffs and defendants in challenging and complex matters, involving such areas of the law as contract, fraud, corporate governance, unfair trade practices, securities, the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, employment, partnership disputes, the Freedom of Information Act and civil rights.

Prior to joining the firm as an associate, Mr. Craig was an associate in the litigation department of Debevoise & Plimpton LLP. In 2009, Mr. Craig also served as an Assistant District Attorney in the Kings County District Attorney's Office through the Partners in Prosecution program, where he tried both jury and non-jury cases and argued numerous motions.
